

Decent Work and Health Network

A health sector response to the Changing Workplaces Review

Tuesday July 19th, 2016 from 4 pm to 6 pm

St. Michael's Hospital, Li Ka Shing Knowledge Institute (204 Victoria Street), Room 241

Background: The Decent Work and Health Network (DWHN) is a collaboration between Health Providers Against Poverty and the Workers' Action Centre. Supported by the Atkinson Foundation, the DWHN is a high-impact intervention on a key social determinant of health: employment and working conditions. Over the past year, the DWHN has engaged in advocacy, using the policy window presented by the Changing Workplaces Review.

Agenda

Time	Topic	Speaker
4:00 to 4:10 pm	Introductions	Andrew Pinto Deena Ladd
4:10 pm to 4:20 pm	Evolution of the Decent Work and Health Network	Andrew Pinto
4:20 pm – 4:35 pm	Overview of the Changing Workplaces Review, and link to health care and public health	Deena Ladd
4:35 pm to 5:00 pm	Break-out sessions # 1 – Paid Sick Days # 2 – Requirement for medical documentation #3 – Scheduling and on-call requirements	All
5:00 – 5:30 pm	Report back	All
5:30 pm to 5:50 pm	Developing a Health Sector Response to the Changing Workplaces Review	All
5:50 pm to 6:00 pm	Next Steps	All